Reports To: Principal

Major Responsibilities:

- 1. Plan and implement age-level lessons and assessments in support of the curricular scope and sequence
 - a. All daily lessons should be built on the love of Christ: helping students to recognize the beauty, wonder, order, and goodness of all things in God's world and His story, over which Jesus Christ reigns as creator, sustainer, and savior
 - b. Implement an early childhood curriculum that aligns with the PA Early Learning Standards, is play based and reflective of our Christian faith commitment.
 - c. Model, demonstrate, and embody the values of Logos Academy/New City School for all students throughout the school day, in and out of the classroom
 - d. Contribute to the regular assessment and improvement of our curricular scope and sequence within your areas of instruction at the direction of the Lead Teacher and Head of School.
 - e. Maintains a comprehensive and ongoing portfolio assessment for each child. This should include weekly observations, areas of development and growth and examples of the child's work.

- 2. Develop and maintain a formative classroom environment and culture
 - a. Classroom setup and decorations should embody the age appropriate curricular content and celebrate student work in a way that is inviting, intriguing, home-like, and orderly
 - b. Students should be clearly aware of teacher expectations and authority during every activity and transition throughout the school day and classroom culture should follow predictable rhythms of activity (moving between lively and restful)
 - c. Implement all school policy and practices with regard to student behavior
 - d. Maintain behavioral records for regular parent communications, student records, and any outside professional assessment of students (requested by parents and approved by the school)

- 3. Maintain parent partnerships through a class newsletter, an annual home visit, and at least two parent-teacher-conferences per year (communicating all results to the Lead Teacher and Head of School)

- 4. Maintain regular, professional, open and honest communications with colleagues, Lead Teacher, office staff, school administrators and families. All communications should be reflective of our shared Christian faith commitment

- 5. Receive and implement all direction from the Lead Teachers and Head of School with enthusiasm and humility.
